Turnbull Crest Items Available

TCA has been researching a way to make Turnbull crested clothing and merchandise available to our members. We are happy to announce that we have now established a working relationship with the Logodogz company to do just that.

You can now order the Turnbull crest to be embroidered on

Turnbull

Crest available on 100's of items hundreds of items. And the best news is you can order one or 100. There is no minimum order! And there are price breaks for quantity orders. This is ideal for a special gift or that family reunion coming up. TCA has paid the setup costs to make the logo available to its members. TCA does not profit from this and is not involved in your purchase. You work directly with the Logodogz company.

Ordering can be done online or by phone. To order by phone, call 1-888-827-8866 and request a catalog or request the item you want. Or you can browse www.logodogz.com and choose the items you want to have embroidered and then call the above number with the item number and description. Ask for the TCA (Turnbull Clan Association) logo. You can also order online.

Here are things you need to know when ordering online.

Step 1. Choose the item you would like to order.

Step 2. Answer the four questions about logos:

1. Using two locations – reply (0)
2. How many logos on this order – reply (1)
3. How many need to be digitized – reply (0)
4. Enter your zip code and continue

Step 3: After you select your shipping option, you will be asked for: Unique Name of your logo. (TCA)

Select "on file at CAD"

Mark the square that says "I am not selecting specific thread colors."

You will be asked to select the embroidery location (where you want this to appear on the item). When asked to select the logo to use, the drop down screen will show TCA as one of the options. Choose this option. Leave the other boxes blank as you do not need to select fonts or type styles. Complete your order. Logodogz will ship your Turnbull logo selection to your door!

Turnbull Participates in Riley's Ride Australia TCA Update

Jack Riley was an overseer of the isolated Tom Groggin Station in the Great Dividing Range in the State of Victoria, Australia. When Jack became gravely ill, a heroic attempt was made to take him to the nearest medical care, 43 miles away, over very rough terrain, with no roads and in the middle of winter. It was a desperate mission. He was taken first by stretcher, but as even the existing mining track was in disrepair, switched to a pony. Unfortunately, Riley died along the way.

Riley's Ride is an annual event to commemorate Jack Riley's life and the part he (continued on page 5)

Proud but not Prideful

Being proud is feeling good about ourselves and others. Being prideful is thinking that we are better than others. Let's be proud to be part of the Turnbull Clan but not prideful.

We now have the opportunity to proudly wear our Turnbull crest on hundreds of items from aprons to work clothes, bathrobes to towels, blouses to T-shirts.

As described on the front page of this issue we are no longer restricted to purchasing anything we can find that has the Turnbull name and crest on it or worse yet, going through the racks looking in vain for some, nay any Turnbull object. We can now proudly wear our Turnbull crest on just about any imaginable item.

TCA is pleased to have provided the design and arranged favorable terms for our members to purchase these goods but TCA is not involved in any way in the sales and does not profit from them.

Be proud and display your Turnbull crest on your chest, your hat, your bag, and even on your towel and your blanket for others to see and for yourself to enjoy. Not only are these fun items to own and use but they also make excellent gifts. They fill a need and also serve as a proud reminder of the giver, your family, your clan, and your heritage.

Stirling Woods and Castle

Historical significance to Turnbulls: Stirling Woods is a part of King's Park of Stirling Castle. This is where William of Rule saved King Robert the Bruce's life by turning the raging bull's head and was consequently dubbed Sir Turn-e-bull.

Interesting Facts: William I (William the Lion) created a royal hunting park at Stirling. This is most likely the park where William of Rule saved the life of King Bruce.

William Wallace and Andrew Murray lead the Scots to victory at the Battle of Stirling Bridge below the castle in September 1297. Stirling Castle was consequently surrendered by the English to the Scots. The Scots abandoned Stirling Castle after their loss at the Battle of Falkirk and Edward I again resumed control in 1298. In 1299, Robert the Bruce successfully laid siege to Stirling Castle and regained it from the English.

Sights to see: A visit to Stirling Castle should include the following within the castle walls.

The King's Old Building: This was built for James IV in about 1496. Its north end is located on the highest part of the castle rock.

The Great Hall: Most historians agree that James IV built this structure and he clearly intended to impress. The Great Hall was the largest ever built in Scotland, measuring 138ft by 47ft. It is heated by five fireplaces. The space seems huge to our 21st Century eyes. It must have been truly awe-inspiring in the 1500s.

The Palace: In 1538, when James V was to marry Mary of Guise, he wanted something to show that Scotland could match the best he had seen in France.

The result was the Palace at Stirling Castle. At its center is the paved area known as the Lion's Den.

The Kitchen: The kitchens were excavated and partially restored in 1921 and can be accessed by steps leading into the basement of the Master Gunner's House.

Chapel Royal: It is believed that that there has been a chapel within Stirling Castle for as long as there has been a castle.

King's Park and Stirling Woods: From the garden area of the castle, one can look out and see King's Park and where Stirling Woods once stood.

Statue of Robert the Bruce and Wallace Monument: In front of the castle is a commemorative statue of Robert the Bruce. Looking across the wall, one can see the Wallace Monument in the distance.

Stirling Castle proudly overlooks King's Park and Stirling Woods.

Getting there: Public transportation to Stirling is provided by the national bus and rail network from all parts of the UK. Stirling is 37 miles slightly north and west from Edinburgh, 30 miles north and slightly east from Glasgow, and 421 miles north of London.

If traveling by car from Edinburgh, take the M9. From Glasgow, travel along the M80. The M80 becomes the M9. Take the A84 exit (exit 10) toward Stirling.

Riley's Ride (continued from page 1)

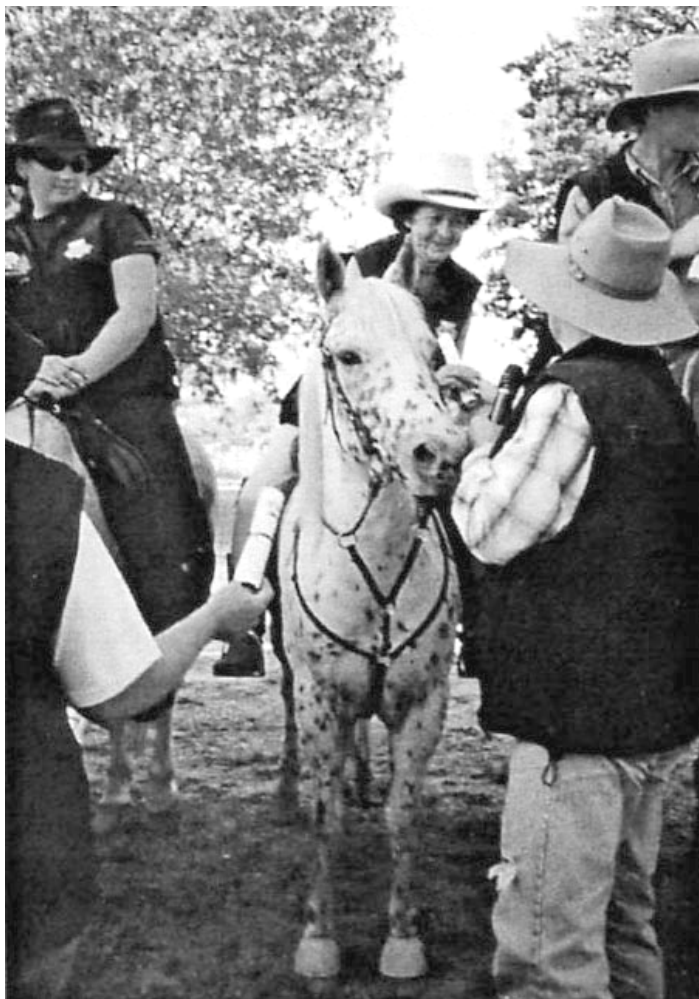

played in the early development of this district and to honor those who tried to rescue him under very difficult conditions. This is a four day event, winding through narrow trails and over very rough and steep terrain, ending at the Corryong Cemetery for the official launch of the "Snowy River Festival."

Jack is thought to be the stockman in Banjo Paterson's Man from Snowy River.

"...He hails from Snowy River, up by Kosciusko's side,
Where the hills are twice as steep and twice as rough,
Where a horse's hoofs strike firelight from the flint stones
every stride..." (Man from Snowy River)

Mavis Turnbull Lockwood participated in the 2004 Riley's Ride. Mavis, 77, the oldest of the riders, made the trip on her Australian spotted pony, Freckles. Freckles was the smallest pony in the ride.

Mavis trained Freckles for 12 weeks before the ride, by taking him down a bluff to get him used to climbing. After the second day of the ride, many of the larger horses gave up. The other riders said "Freckles was the bravest of them all."
