

Monumental Task Begins

Artist Angela Hunter reports that a facility has been obtained to house the larger than life monument as the Turning of the Bull Monument begins to take form. Larger than anything Angela has done before, her normal workspace was not big enough for the creation of the monument. Angela spent several weeks looking for just the right place to begin work. Not only does Angela need floor space for such a piece, she needs head room, as she will be required to “hang” from various angles in order to create the entire statue. The statue will be approximately 6’ x 8’ when completed.

The side angle shows the monument before the addition of William Rule.

Angela says that the next step is to create the armature for William Rule. Angela will keep us posted on the progress of the monument. She will send photos as the work advances depicting the various stages of the work.

The Turning of the Bull monument is due to be unveiled during the 2009 Spring Reivers’ Festival in Hawick, Scotland. The monument will be situated in the open yard of the Hawick Heritage Hub.

The artist sketch showing the side view of the bull with William Rule. The entire statue will be approximately 6 feet tall and 8 feet across. It will sit on a granite plinth at the Heritage Hub site in Hawick.

Above, a metal armature is being welded. This form becomes the framework for the life size bull. The next step in the development is filling the frame with bulk upon which the clay sculpting will take place.

The form takes shape as the welded structure is filled and prepared for the next step.

Free! "Right - What's the catch?" is often the Scottish response to something for nothing. I do agree that every gift comes with a desire from the donor.

Sometimes that desire is simply for happiness and benefit.

TCA is offering "free" trial memberships hoping that those members will want to support and continue to be a part of our clan programs and activities. If not, then they will at least know what we are doing and where to find us later when they are interested.

Please go online to www.turnbullclan.com (or send an email to secretary@turnbullclan.com) and sign up all of your Turnbull relatives and friends for a complimentary trial membership. We will introduce TCA to them and send them the Bullseye by email for three months. After that time they will be invited, with absolutely no pressure, to join full-time if they so wish. We won't pester them; we won't send them junk mail; we will respect their privacy and won't share their information with any third party.

Yes, there is a motive but it is one that is win-win and it really is free so what are you waiting for?

Courtney 11, Holly 2 mos, and Paige 4

Congratulations to Donald and Dana Schwierking and proud grandmother Janet Schwierking on the arrival of Holly Ellen. Holly was born October 10, 2007 and weighed 6 lbs. 2 oz.

Janet boasts fifteen grandchildren in all and 4 great grandchildren! She has 3 great grandchildren and 2 grandchildren under the age of six with her oldest granddaughter being 32! That must be what keeps her young and going strong!

2007 – A Year To Remember

Myra and John Turnbull, circa 1960s, worked tirelessly to establish the Turnbull Clan Association and reestablish roots worldwide.

The year was 1977 and the man was John F. Turnbull of Hawick, Scotland. John founded Turnbull Clan Association to reestablish a link with Turnbells worldwide and their rich heritage. Working endlessly with his wife Myra as his personal assistant, the two wrote letters and addressed envelopes by hand, mailing to any Turnbull worldwide that they could find. 2007 commemorated the 30th anniversary of the Turnbull Clan Association. To celebrate, the Annual General Meeting took place in Scotland where the organization was founded.

John F. Turnbull, 1932-1982 - In 1978, he designed and created the Turnbull Dress and the Turnbull Hunting Tartans.

Remembering 2007 . . .

President Wally Turnbull presents the first John F. Turnbull Lifetime Achievement Award to Myra Turnbull.

TCA establishes the John F. Turnbull Lifetime Achievement Award. The award is to be given in special cases to those clan members who have served the clan in an outstanding manner over a long period of time and have demonstrated the ideals of the clan. The first award was presented to Myra Turnbull, who has served the clan from the establishment of TCA with her husband John and continuing after his death to insure that the clan lived on.

The 2007 Clan Member of the Year Award was given to George Turnbull, Hawick, Scotland. George serves as the TCA representative in Scotland and worked hard in helping acquire a home for the Turning of the Bull Monument.

The beautiful Borders of Scotland became home to 46 TCA members for 10 days as they explored & visited sites of Turnbulls past.

The first public display of the Turnbull arms is seen flying above Town Hall, Hawick, Scotland

Bedrule Kirk was one of the highlights of the TCA tour. Trip members could be seen looking for Turnbull stones in the graveyard. (photo by Gordon Turnbull)

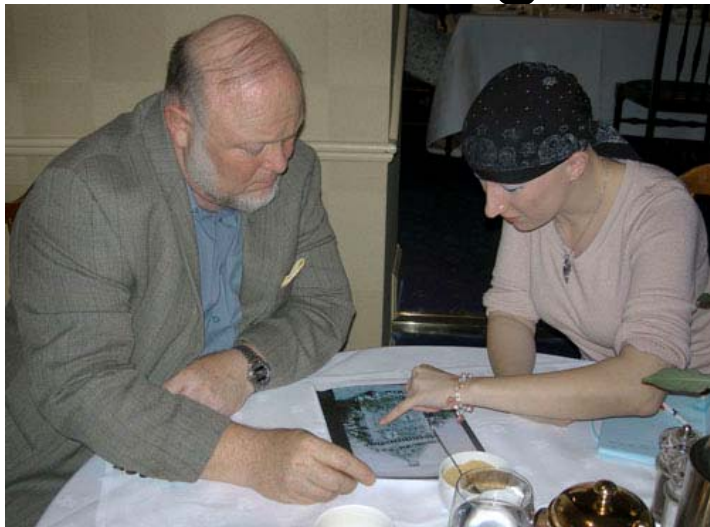

The difficult climb to Fatlips Castle, once a Turnbull stronghold, was a must for the group.

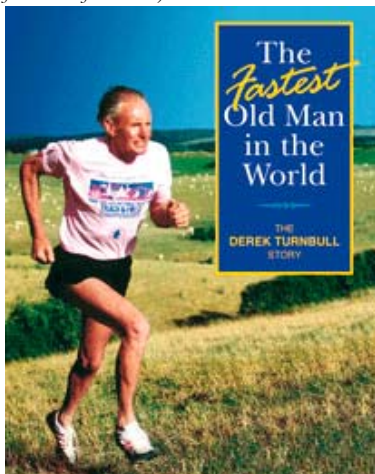

The Glasgow University tour was made extra special with a performance from their renowned choir.

Remembering 2007 . . .

Wally Turnbull discusses the future of Fatlips Castle with Gemma Barnard, who is leading a campaign to save the castle. (Visit www.rulewater.com/friendsoffatlips.htm for more information.)

The Derek Turnbull track opened in New Zealand in memory of the former TCA member.

The Virtual Museum received a facelift along with the addition of many items. The museum is located on the Turnbull Clan website (www.turnbullclan.com). Above, the Turnbull Parade Silver Saddle, circa 1930, was commissioned by Judge Rupert Turnbull for his wife, Mary Irene.
