It was a beautiful sunny day and I decided to explore the highlands by myself. To my delight, I came upon an old, crumbling castle. Excitedly, I started to climb the pile of torn down stones to peer inside. Suddenly a voice whispers my name! Frightened, I look around and then see...

Guess Who?

My family was originally from Langholm, Scotland in the Borders of Scotland, next door to Turnbull lands. I was born in Ohio, USA. I was an Eagle Scout. I took a piece of my family tartan on an "out of this world trip."

In July, 1969, I said, "One small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." Who am I?

Did You Know?

Contrary to popular belief, the bagpipes did not originate in Scotland. The first bagpipes can be traced back to the Middle East several centuries before the birth of Christ. They were most likely made from reeds stuck into goatskin. The Romans carried the pipes to Britain and by the 14th century bagpipes could be found in almost every Scottish village.

Bitty Bulls Craft Time

Assembly:

1. Trace hand and cut-out, or make a hand paint print. Trace on black, pink or any color of your choice.
2. Depending on the size of hand use the template. If it is a small toddler hand (template will be too big) - have them glue cotton balls directly on the palm area and draw eyes and mouth on the thumb area.
3. For older toddlers, print the template and have the children fill the body template with cotton balls and color the face template.
4. Children can now glue the body to the palm area and then the head on the thumb area.
5. Optional: Tape a ribbon or string to the back for a nice ornament -- and/or write a message on the back (age and dated).
