

JOHN D. TURNBULL

LONACONING — John Darnley Turnbull, 78, of 114 West Main Street, died Monday in Frostburg Village Nursing Home, where he had resided since April 25, 1984.

Born in Lonaconing March 18, 1909, he was the son of the late William and Jane (Darnley) Turnbull.

Retired from the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, Cumberland, Mr. Turnbull was a member of First Presbyterian Church, Goodwill Volunteer Fire Department, Senior Citizens of George's Creek, Lonaconing Republican Club and FO Eagles Aerie 245, Cumberland.

Surviving are his widow, Fay (Eichhorn) Turnbull; one son, William R. Turnbull, LaVale; one sister, Mrs. Catherine Rogers, LaVale; and two grandchildren.

Friends will be received in the Eichhorn-McKenzie Funeral Home Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Services will be conducted there Thursday at 1 p.m. by the Rev. Donald Spear. Interment will be in Frostburg Memorial Park.