

My name is Joyce Marie (Deegan) Marot, born 8 June 1941 in Walworth County, WI; parents' names Frank Wilbert Deegan and Marion Ethel nee Boyer. I am the oldest of their 4 children, siblings are Laurence Martin, Cynthia Marion and Frank Brian. Grew up on farms in Jefferson County, WI which is between Madison and Milwaukee. Attended a rural one-room elementary school for grades K-8. Active in 4-H for 9 years. After high school graduation, I attended Lutheran Hospital of Milwaukee School of Nursing and graduated with an RN diploma. I married Louis Todd Marot on 10 November 1962. Over the years, we have lived in Minnesota, Illinois, Iowa, and in 1973 we moved to south-central Michigan. We have 3 daughters: Penny in 1965, Leslie in 1967, and Margi in 1969; and 2 grandchildren David and Alyssa. I worked parttime at intervals while our daughters were at home, and have also served as a literacy tutor and as treasurer of the Coldwater (MI) Community Schools Band Boosters. Since 1991, I have been employed fulltime as a nurse at the Battle Creek Veterans Affairs Hospital working with mentally ill veterans.

My interest in genealogy began during my elementary school years. In the 1940s and 1950s, Jefferson Co, WI still had many persons who had immigrated there from Germany. My father and others would relate stories concerning the experiences of these 19th century settlers; also those of his Irish ancestors to this same area. What these storytellers did not know was exactly where most of these immigrants had been born in Germany and Ireland. My mother knew almost nothing about her ancestry beyond the names of her great-grandparents except that they were Pennsylvania Dutch on her father's side and New England Yankee on her mother's side of the family tree.

I read several how-to-do-it-yourself genealogical research books in the 1980s, and began active research on my ancestors (and those of my husband) in 1988 after our youngest daughter had left for college. The fact that I live 1 hour from the State of Michigan Library & Archives in Lansing and 2 hours from the Allen County Public Library in Fort Wayne, IN--two excellent sources of family history research materials--has proven most fortunate and convenient.

A hired researcher found the probate record of my fourth-great-grandfather Ezra Kent II (26 Aug 1768-23 Nov 1833) in Hampden Co, MA; this document stated that his wife's maiden name was Mary Trumble. Further research showed her to be a descendant of John and Elinor (?Chandler) Trumbull who immigrated from Newcastle-on-Tyne ca1640 to Rowley, Essex Co, MA. (See ANCESTORS & DESCENDANTS OF MARY TRUMBULL-MULLINS, MELINDA A. CAMPBELL, & JEROME TERRILL OF HUDSON, MICHIGAN 1630-1994 by Donna Terrill-Northius.) I have not done any research into the ancestry of the above-mentioned John Trumbull, but given the closeness of Newcastle-on-Tyne to the English-Scottish border, his ancestors may well have been from Scotland.

I have another surname on my family^{tree} which may have originated in Scotland. I have traced a third-great-grandfather Henry Elliott back to the eastern shore of Canandaigua Lake in New York ca1815. His family may have moved there from Beverly, MA but I have yet to find proof of this possibility.

ARTHUR E. BOYER, SR. & BLANCHE G. MARTIN

Arthur Eugene Boyer, Sr. was born in Niles, Berrien County, Michigan on July 2, 1894. After attending Niles public schools, he worked for a short time as a clerk in a local store, then went to work on a farm northeast of Watervliet near the home of his sister Clida and her family.

⊗ Blanche Gertrude Martin was born at Twelve Corners, Berrien County on July 18, 1896. Most of her childhood was spent in the Riverside-Coloma area. After completing high school in Coloma, she studied for one year at Collegiate Institute Normal School in Benton Harbor. She was teaching at a one-room rural school near Watervliet when she and Arthur Boyer met.

They were married on June 14, 1916 at the Methodist parsonage in St. Joseph. Their first home was on a farm in Bainbridge TWP. They lived on farms in the Watervliet, Lawrence, and Hartford areas until the late 1920s when they moved to Lake County, Illinois. From there they moved to Kenosha County, Wisconsin; to Walworth Co; to Rock Co; to Jefferson Co; to Whitewater; to McHenry Co, Illinois; and then back to Whitewater. In addition to farming, Arthur worked as a tool & die maker in factories and as a salesman of farm equipment.

Arthur died on September 6, 1958 and Blanche died on December 4, 1972. *Burial in Lakeshore Cemetery, Hagar TWP,
Berrien County, Michigan*

This couple are my maternal grandparents.

THE ANCESTRY OF BLANCHE GERTRUDE MARTIN

FRANCIS MARION MARTIN was born in either Elkhart County or in Eden TWP of LaGrange Co, Indiana on January 25, 1842. He moved with his family to Kalamazoo Co, Michigan about 1845. It was from there that he enlisted in Company "K" of the 2nd Michigan Infantry and served for 3 years in the Civil War (1861-1864). In 1865, the family moved to a farm in Section 21 of Lawrence TWP of VanBuren Co. On December 25, 1867, he married 22-year-old Edna O. Gage at South Haven. They were the parent of 2 children. Edna died on August 27, 1875 and was buried on her parents plot in Lawrence Pioneer Cemetery. Soon after her death, Francis moved to the village of Clam Lake--now the city of Cadillac in Wexford Co. Copies of land transactions (the originals of which are still in the possession of a family member) show that he obtained three-40 acre tracts of land in Wexford County under the provisions of the 1862 Homestead Act. The documents are dated April 1, 1876 at Traverse City, MI.

⊗ OLIVIA R. OLDS was born in the village of Decatur, VanBuren Co, MI on November 20, 1853. In the early 1870s, she moved with her parents and sisters to Cadillac. Sometime in her early 20s, she began to use the first name of "Ida" and continued to do so for the rest of her life.

Francis and Ida were married on January 13, 1878 at her parents home in Cadillac. They moved to the Twelve Corners-Riverside area of Berrien Co shortly after 1882. They were living on a farm in Hagar TWP on April 5, 1904 when Francis died. Not long after his death Ida moved to Coloma, all the while busy raising their children who were still living at home. When she turned 75 in 1928, her Civil War widow's pension increased from $65 to $75 per month. She died on September 12, 1948, leading a relatively active life until her last few days. For a number of years, she was Coloma's oldest resident and last Civil War widow.

THE DESCENDANTS OF LEVI THEODORE OLDS AND MARY M. ELLIOTT

⊗ LEVI THEODORE OLDS was born on 12 June 1823 in either Ontario (later Yates) Co or Niagara Co, NY. His parents were GEORGE OLDS and MARY ANN KENT. As a young man, he migrated to Kalamazoo Co, MI--most likely in the company of some of his brothers and sisters and cousins. He served in the US Army in the Mexican-American War. Upon his return to Michigan, he moved to the newly-platted village of Decatur in VanBuren County. He was the first carpenter and joiner there.

MARY M. ELLIOTT was born on 30 July 1832 in Greenwood TWP, Steuben Co, NY; the fourth child of HENRY ELLIOTT and PERTHENA nee MOORE. Her family moved to a farm in Wakeman TWP of Huron Co, OH in 1834; then to another farm in Hamilton TWP of VanBuren Co, MI ca1845.

LEVI and MARY were married on either 18 or 26 May 1850 in Decatur--the first couple said to have been married in that village. During the years they lived there, they were members of the Methodist church. LEVI was given a Bible by the church's Sunday School in 1865. That Bible is still in the possession of a direct descendant (2000). Between 1871 and 1875, this family moved to the village of Clam Lake (now the city of Cadillac). LEVI and MARY raised their daughter Carolyn's son Charles Theodore after her death from typhoid fever; he was still living with them in 1900. They moved to Clare, Clare Co, MI ca1885 and were among the charter members of the Congregational church there. LEVI died on 10 September 1902 and was laid to rest in Cherry Grove Cemetery. MARY moved to Detroit shortly before 1910 with their youngest daughter and her family. She died there on 21 February 1916 and her remains were brought back to Clare and Cherry Grove Cemetery for burial the next day.

EZRA KENT, JR and MARY TRUMBULL

EZRA KENT, JR was born or baptized on 26 August 1768 at Suffield, Hartford Co, CT. His parents were EZRA KENT, SR and ELIZABETH GILLETTE.

⊗ MARY "Polly" TRUMBULL (or TRUMBLE) was born in 1769 at Suffield, Hartford Co, CT. Her parents were LEVI TRUMBLE and MARY SMITH.

EZRA and MARY were married in 1788--the date is taken from his probate papers. Little is known about their lives except that which can be found the federal censuses and some civil & church records of their time. EZRA died at Southwick, Hampden Co, MA on 23 November 1833. MARY's date of death is unknown except that she survived her husband. The names of their children were taken from his probate papers in the order in which they appear in that source. That is to say, the names are most likely not in order of their births.
