In Memoriam

Mr. Jacob Mosier one of the early pioneers of Minnesota passed quietly away last Friday morning at nine o'clock.

He had been feeling languid for some time, but apparently nothing serious. One Friday morning he arose from his bed dressed itimself and walked out into the kitchen. After partaking of his breakfast he lay down on the lounge. In a short time they saw he was getting very nervous. His son started for a physician but had gone only a few minutes when he breathed his last, he died without a struggle.

FORMER LANGDON WOMAN DIES JUNE 1

Mrs. Ann Kemp, 76, Dies at Home of Son at Highwood

Mrs. Ann Frances Mosher Kemp, a former Langdon resident, and a woman well-known in Hastings, as she has visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Turnbull, West 3rd, street, a great deal, was summoned in death on Sunday, May 20th, at the home of her son, Clarence M. Kemp of Highwood, Minn., a locality near Langdon.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, June 1st, from her son's residence at one thirty and two o'clock from the Langdon Community church, where she was an ardent worker and member for many years. Rev. Will Thompson, of the Presbyterian church at Pine City, and a relative of Mrs. Kemp's officiated at both services. Interment was made at the Cottage Grove cemetery, beside the body of her husband.

Mrs. Kemp was born near Cottage Grove, December 17, 1855. She passed away at the age of seventy-six years, five months and twelve days. She grew to woman-hood at Cottage Grove and on September 8, 1885, was united in marriage to Charles E. Kemp of Langdon. They took up their residence on a farm in this locality and lived there for many years. One son was born to this happy union, Clarence M. Kemp. In 1918 they moved to Langdon where they had a small grocery store. In Mar. 1922, Mr. Kemp was called in death and the home was broken up. Mrs. Kemp going to live with her brother, Grant Mosher, at Los Molinos, Cal. She enjoyed California but when her brother died in March 1931, she returned to Minnesota and lived with her son. She had perfect health until a few years ago, and her death was due to heart trouble. She had been very ill since December, 1931.

She was a very fine christian woman and carried on her church activities in California as she did in her home community. She had the happy faculty of making and winning friends wherever she went She had a very peaceful and quiet death, just slept away. She was conscious almost to the last. Her fact words were: "I dam's going ame."

Left to mount her death are her con, daughter-in-law and grand-
